AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER DEFENSES

Without assuming the burden of proof, and while reserving the right to assert all applicable affirmative defenses supported in law and fact, the Senate Defendants assert the following affirmative defenses:

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' claims.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Second Amended Complaint fails to allege sufficient facts upon which a claim for relief may be granted.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs lack standing to assert their claims in the Second Amended Complaint.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the applicable statutes of limitations.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the equitable doctrines of laches, estoppel, unclean hands, and/or waiver.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs have failed to join indispensable parties to this action.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The South Carolina General Assembly has primary jurisdiction to enact redistricting plans for the South Carolina House, South Carolina Senate, and South Carolina's delegation to the U.S. Congress. It is primarily the responsibility of the General Assembly, subject to the approval of the Governor, to redistrict or reapportion the Senate, House, and Congressional districts. Redistricting primarily is a matter for legislative consideration and determination, and judicial relief becomes appropriate only when a legislature fails to redistrict according to federal laws and constitutional requirements.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are not ripe for the Court's adjudication.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The General Assembly did not improperly use race in drawing any district or in enacting any redistricting plan. The General Assembly may have been aware of race in drawing districts and redistricting plans, but such awareness does not violate the Constitution or law. See Miller v. Johnson, 515 U.S. 900 (1995). Race did not predominate in the drawing of any district or in the enactment of any redistricting plan. Any use of race in the drawing of any district or in the enactment of any redistricting plan was constitutional and/or justified by a state interest.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The General Assembly did not discriminate, intentionally or otherwise, against any voter or group of voters on any basis, including the basis of race, in drawing any district or enacting any redistricting plan.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The General Assembly drew every district and enacted every redistricting plan in accordance with the U.S. Constitution and federal and state law, including traditional districting principles and the criteria and guidelines adopted by the South Carolina House and South Carolina Senate.

CONCLUSION

The Senate Defendants respectfully request that the Court (1) dismiss Plaintiffs' claims with prejudice and enter judgment for Defendants; (2) deny Plaintiffs' prayer for relief; and (3) grant other such relief as the Court may deem proper.
